Hiya

Thought I'd better introduce myself, as I'm on here so much :)

I'm the co-founder of www.unwantd.com - a free auction website, which has been running for 9 months and also www.cyberneur.com - which is very young :) and has a completely different look and feel. It's for you to share your experiences and help each other to success.

I hope you all enjoy the site and benefit from it.

Hiya Emma,

So your hooked up with Jay?

Your sites are very different in design definitely. How's the other one going?
